

Delirious mother and nimble daughter take a road trip in order to rekindle their relationship. Once they arrive however, they are at a fight for survival.

Reagan comes down the staircase in aggravation as she does not want to spend the weekend with her mother. Her mother, Vanessa is thrilled to be with her daughter and wants the chance to reconnect with her. We are introduced to the characters personalities and mannerisms. Likewise, introduced into the dysfunctional mother daughter relationship.

STORYLINE

Rugged old Toyota pickup. Summer day in June, but it is cloudy and raining. Awkward silence, Reagan plays with mothers music on radio. They get into an argument, then remain silent while the music plays in background. Vanessa continues to try and talk to her daughter but Reagan is not responding because she has her headphones in.

CHARACTERS

STORYLINE

As they begin to arrive, Reagan stares out of the car window with her earbuds in both ears. She sees how clean and pristine the town is, fake in a way and compares it to her community. Everyone looks and dresses in a similar manner, and there are no people of colour. She glances around and sees a woman wearing earrings exactly the same as her friend did who went missing but doesn't think much of it at the time.

CHARACTERS

STORYLINE

Driving up the secluded driveway. Surrounded by trees and wildlife, Reagan and Vanessa both stare in amazement. The owners of the home stand in front of the door dressed very colonial with their hands crossed in front of them. The wife has a gold cross necklace with a diamond in the centre and the husband has one as well but with a gold diamond.

CHARACTERS
Reagan (daughter)

STORYLINE

The cabin is two stories, made out of dark oak logs with a wrap around porch and high ceilings. The cabin is decorated very pristinely, organized and strategically placed. Signalling that the owners have some sort of OCD problem which comes up in conversation. The owners are punctual and seem to be perfect in every way. Clearly discriminatory towards the women making culturally insensitive remarks.

CHARACTERS

STORYLINE

The two women go out to dinner with a couple that intrigued Vanessa into renting the home. They meet at a fancy restaurant in the town. Reagan begins to get suspicious, and asks questions. The other couple catches on and suggests to go to a bar close by.

CHARACTERS

STORYLINE

The arrive at the bar, Vanessa is already intoxicated but Reagan is not. The other couple tries to get them to dance and loosen up, but it is only Vanessa who is participating.

CHARACTERS

STORYLINE

Reagan wakes up in the morning and glances out of the window of her bedroom. She sees Timothy who is not supposed to be on the property while they are staying there in the garage. She glares and tries to figure out what he is doing but he turns around, sees her, and quickly closes the garage and leaves.

CHARACTERS

STORYLINE

Reagans suspicions increase and she decides to stroll around the cabin to see what is going on. She sees her mother spread out on the bed out cold. she rolls her eyes and shuts the door. She travels down to the basement and sees a hidden door. It is locked so she picks it and is able to enter. What she finds horrifies her.

CHARACTERS

STORYLINE

She runs back upstairs, leaving the door opened and wakes her mother up. Her mother is delirious and does not believe her. ,

CHARACTERS

STORYLINE

CHARACTERS

STORYLINE

CHARACTERS

STORYLINE

CHARACTERS

STORYLINE

CHARACTERS

STORYLINE

CHARACTERS

STORYLINE
